

De: Eduard Dundler Eduard.Dundler@ifip.org
Objet: IFIP Insights - 29 August 2019
Date: 30 août 2019 à 08:17
À: Eduard Dundler Eduard.Dundler@ifip.org

ED

IFIP Insights

News from IFIP members, Technical Committees and the ICT sector around the world

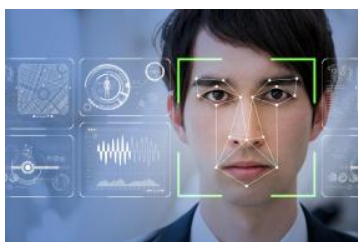

Thursday, Aug. 29, 2019

Read paper

BCS Warns Against Use of Facial Recognition in Public Spaces - IFIP News

www.ifipnews.org - Shared by IFIP

BCS, The Chartered Institute for IT, has warned against the rise of a 'cavalier attitude' by organisations using 'flawed' facial recognition technology to monitor crowds in public spaces, highlightin...

ACS Report Lays Out Measures to Protect Privacy in the Age of Big Data - IFIP News

www.ifipnews.org - Shared by IFIP

ACS findings highlights the challenges of preserving users' privacy in a connected world. While many organisations sharing data to improve services might be struggling to protect individual privacy, ...

IITPSA Introduces Professional CIO Recognition to South Africa - IFIP News

www.ifipnews.org - Shared by IFIP

Professional CIO (Pr.CIOTM) now a professional designation in SA, thanks to an initiative by the Institute of Information Technology Professionals South Africa (IITPSA). IITPSA has introduced a Profe...

GI Awards Highest Computer Science Honour to Dorothea Wagner - IFIP News

www.ifipnews.org - Shared by IFIP

Professor Doctor Dorothea Wagner from the Karlsruhe Institute of Technology received the Konrad-Zuse-Medal from the Gesellschaft für Informatik (GI) for her services to computer science earlier this ...

Cyprus Gears Up for INTERACT 2019 - IFIP News

www.ifipnews.org - Shared by IFIP

INTERACT 2019, the 17th IFIP TC13 International Conference on Human-Computer Interaction, will be held from September 2 to 6, 2019 in Paphos, Cyprus. Organised by TC 13, INTERACT is co-sponsored by t...

Read paper
